

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee and KBCC, I would like to extend a cordial welcome to all our members, participants, guests and exhibitors of the Kazakhstan Business Forum 2011.

Today, the KBCC projects are among the leading corporate and industry-wise events in the UK and Central Asia, attended by the senior delegates from the governments; leading world manufacturers, and suppliers of services; financiers and consultants.

Importance of the Kazakhstan Business Forum is proved and supported by the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Budget Planning of Kazakhstan, the Ministry of Industry and New Technologies, Embassy of the RK in the UK and the leading companies of Great Britain and Kazakhstan.

It is a pleasure to note that year after year The Kazakhstan Business Forum has been attracting ever -growing numbers of participants and is a powerful stimulus for the constructive international debate, exchange of experience and innovative technologies for domestic industries development.

Annually, the guests and exhibitors of this event enjoy an opportunity to take part in discussing the key problems of the Kazakhstan's economy and get familiarized with the most perspective projects of the region.

The Kazakhstan Business Forum has become a business communication venue allowing them to establish new useful contacts, develop existing partnership relations, share advanced experience, and embark on new projects.

We are confident that Kazakhstan Business Forum 2011 will make a considerable contribution to the sustainable development of several industries in the Republic of Kazakhstan, promote introduction of latest technologies and informing the European business community about promising development trends and the most innovative ideas in the Republic of Kazakhstan.

We believe that the panel discussions, exhibitions, workshops and round tables scheduled within their frameworks will provide debates for Kazakhstan and foreign specialists to discuss actual and urgent issues confronting the foreign entrepreneurs, make a significant contribution into resolving of important issues, and facilitate favorable conditions for long-term economic growth in Kazakhstan.

I would like to wish all participants, exhibitors, guests and potential partners fruitful work, interesting and useful encounters and attainment of intended objectives during the Kazakhstan Business Forum 2011!

Hope that the forthcoming Forum and our cooperation will bring you ever success!
